

THE INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL IN GENOA
SINCE 1966

IB Diploma Results and University Destinations Class of 2016

The International School in Genoa offers its heartiest congratulations to the graduates of the class of 2016 for their excellent IB Diploma results.

Results summary for the ISG class of 2016:

- Pass rate = 100%
- Average total score = 35.0 points (maximum possible is 45 points)
- Average grade per subject = 5.46 points (maximum possible is 7 points)
- Three students – 27% of the class – scored 42 points.
- Eight students – 72% of the class – scored more than 30 points, the world-wide average.
- Final total scores ranged from 29 to 42 points.

The following are the May 2016 world-wide statistics for comparison:

- Pass rate = 79.3%
- Average total score = 30.0 points (maximum possible is 45 points)
- Average grade per subject = 4.80 points (maximum possible is 7 points)
- Only 1.6% of all candidates earned 42 or more points.
- Final total passing scores ranged from 24 (the lowest passing score) to 45 points.

University destinations for the class of 2016:

The students received a total of 75 offers from 51 different universities in 7 countries.

Their final university destinations are:

Brown University – USA
Chapman University – USA
Glion Institute of Higher Education – Switzerland
Jönköping International Business School – Sweden
King's College London – UK
Sciences Po – France
Università Bocconi – Italy
Università Cattolica Sacro Cuore – Italy
University College London (UCL) – UK
University of California, Los Angeles (UCLA) – USA
University of Kent – UK