Name: Pier Paolo Beatrizotti
1. Brief biography and interest in ISG: In summary, I lived for approximately seven years in Los Angeles where, besides gaining a mother-tongue-level knowledge of English, I completed university studies earning a “Bachelor of Science in Business Administration” with a major in “Accounting,” I attained the professional title of Certified Public Accountant (“CPA”) and I worked for approximately three years as an independent auditor (at Arthur Andersen). Later, I returned to live in Genoa where I continued to pursue my professional development still working as an independent auditor (at Deloitte) for approximately seven years up to the management level (since 2006). Presently (since 2010), after having attained the professional title of Dottore Commercialista, I offer companies my professional, consulting and training services. Professional and consulting services include: performance of work pursuant to Italian Legislative Decree 231 dated 2001, performance of work pursuant to Italian bankruptcy legislation (turnAround), temporary management (covering structurally or temporarily weak functions), financial and earnings analyses (due diligence), implementation or development of the controllership function or of periodic management reports, support the transition to accounting for long-term contracts, support the preparation of corporate documents, support internal/independent audit activities. Training services include conducting lectures, both independently and through the support of a training company, on: administration, finance, control, accounting (Italian, U.S., or International GAAP), financial reporting, MS Office software.

2. What skills and knowledge are you willing to bring to the ISG board? (ex. strategic planning, fundraising, financial management, organizational development, others)

Given my professional biography, as outlined above, I am willing to make the following skills and knowledge available to the Board:

- Financial planning and management
- Financial reporting and related analysis
- Budgeting and forecasting
- Capital expenditures' valuation and feasibility analysis

3. Why do you desire to serve on this Board?

I would be privileged to serve another term on ISG's Board as I believe in the school's academic project and methodology and feel I may be able to support ISG in pursuing its goals by making my skills and knowledge available.

Please note that you will be expected to make a short speech at the General Assembly on November 8th, 2018

I understand the responsibilities associated with being a board member, and I have adequate time to serve if appointed.
